

Specialized Disaster Journals

While sociologists, like other social scientists, publish their study findings in a wide variety of professional journals, certain publications have a disaster focus. Most assigned student readings selected for this course were published in one of these journals.

- International Journal of Mass Emergencies and Disasters
- Disasters: The Journal of Disaster Studies, Policy and Management
- Australian Journal of Emergency Management
- Journal of the American Society of Professional Emergency Planners
- Disaster Prevention and Management
- Risk Analysis
- Journal of Hazardous Materials
- Journal of Contingencies and Crisis Management
